NEWSLETTER

Kia ora Parents and Whānau,

This week, we are excited to celebrate Te Wiki o te Reo Māori – Māori Language Week!

This is a wonderful opportunity for us to embrace and honour te reo Māori and integrate it further into our everyday lives. As a school, we are committed to fostering a love for te reo Māori, and this week will be filled with fun, educational activities to help us do just that.

We encourage everyone – tamariki, kaiako, and whānau – to join in, speak te reo, and immerse yourselves in the beauty of the language!

Ngā mihi nui to our kapa haka Group!

A huge congratulations to our kapa haka group, who gave an outstanding performance at the Tū Maia festival last week. We are immensely proud of their dedication, hard work, and passion. The group represented our kura with mana and pride, showcasing the beauty and strength of our culture. We extend a special thank you to Whaea Leeanne, Whaea Leonie, and Whaea Debbie for their incredible leadership and guidance in preparing the group for this event. Without their unwavering support and expertise, this success would not have been possible. Ka mau te wehi!

Let's keep the spirit of kotahitanga (togetherness) alive as we continue to celebrate te reo Māori and all that it represents.

Māori Language Week

Māori Language Week has been celebrated each year since 1975. For more information please go to https://www.reomaori.co.nz/

About Te Wiki o te Reo Māori

Māori Language Week has been celebrated in Aotearoa since 1975. This special week is an opportunity for the concentrated celebration and promotion of te reo Māori, helping to secure its future as a living, dynamic, and rich language.

In the mid-20th century, there were concerns that the Māori language was dying out. The future of te reo Māori was the subject of a Waitangi Tribunal claim in 1985. The tribunal's recommendations led to far-reaching legislative and policy changes. Māori became an official language of New Zealand in 1987. Te Taura Whiri i te Reo Māori was established in the same year to promote te reo.

Te Wiki o te Reo Māori is part of a broad Māori language revival programme and raises public awareness for Māori language learning and public usage. Mahuru Māori is an initiative begun in 2017 to promote the use of te reo Māori throughout the month of September..

Ways you could participate:

- Māori Language Moment. Is a great website to get involved with Te Wiki o Te Reo Māori / Māori Language Week.
- You can talk with our tamariki about how they have celebrated te reo Māori each day and use a little te reo Māori at home.
- You could use a little te reo in your homes and workplaces.

50 Māori words every New Zealander should know

Here are the 50 Māori words every New Zealander should know. They are more commonly used now than ever before so if you don't know them, you should get to learn them.

Ngā mihi nui Wendy Naidu - Tumuaki/Principal
